

DATA PRIVACY NOTICE

Stamford St Gilbert of Sempringham Church School Charity No 527704

1. Your personal data – what is it?

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data.

Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation (the "GDPR").

2. Who are we?

The Stamford St Gilbert of Sempringham Church School Charity is the data controller (contact details below). This means it decides how your personal data is processed and for what purposes.

3. How do we process your personal data?

The Stamford St Gilbert of Sempringham Church School Charity complies with its obligations under the GDPR by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure and by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

We use your personal data for the following purposes: -

- To enable us to provide a voluntary service for the benefit of the public in a particular geographical area as specified in our constitution;
- To administer membership records;
- To fundraise and promote the interests of the charity
- To manage our employees and volunteers;
- To maintain our own accounts and records (including the processing of gift aid applications)
- To inform you of news, events, activities and services running at the All Saints' and St John's Community Centre, Stamford

4. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

- Explicit consent of the data subject so that we can keep you informed about news, events, activities and services and processing your gift aid donations and keep you informed about Centre events.
- Processing is necessary for carrying out obligations under employment, social security or social protection law, or a collective agreement;
- Processing is carried out by a not-for-profit body with a political, philosophical, religious or trade union aim provided: -the processing relates only to members or former members (or those who have regular contact with it in connection with those purposes); and

- there is no disclosure to a third party without consent.

5. Sharing your personal data

Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential and will only be shared with other members of the Charity in order to carry out a service to other members or for purposes connected with the All Saints' and St John's Centre.

Your email address will be shared with our mailing provider Mail Chimp for the purposes for administering electronic newsletters and we will only share your data with other third parties outside of the Charity with your consent.
